

The following table can be used as a guide for applying for a flare stack and/or a flare blackened area.

	FACILITY APPLICATION				WELL PERMIT APPLICATION	CROWN LAND APPLICATION
	New Land		No New Land
	New App.	Amendment	New App.	Amendment	Amendment	New Application
FLARE STACK	Permit holders are required to submit a new facility application (new land) when new area is required with a flare stack. The application must include any required facility equipment and flare blackened area, as applicable.	Permit holders are required to submit a facility amendment (new land) when a flare stack is being added to an existing new land facility permit and the flare stack amendment requires additional area. The amendment may include flare blackened area as required.	Permit holders can apply for a temporary or permanent flare stack as a new facility application (no new land) only when the flare stack will be located entirely within an existing wellsite area with an approved permit. This application cannot include additional area.	Permit holders can submit a facility amendment (no new land) to add a flare stack only to an existing no new land facility permit. This application cannot include additional area.	X Option not available	X Option not available
FLARE BLACKENED AREA	X Option not available	Where the flare stack was permitted through a new land facility application, Permit holders must submit a facility amendment (new land) to add additional area for a flare blackened area.	X Option not available	X Option not available	Where the flare stack was permitted through a no new land facility application, Permit holders must submit an amendment to the Well Permit to add additional area for the flare blackened area. Note: if the wellsite area is tenured under a Statutory Right of Way, please refer to the Crown land application process (see next column)	Where the flare stack was permitted through a no new land facility application and the wellsite area is tenured under a Statutory Right of Way; Permit holders must apply for the flare blackened area using a Crown Land Application.

Please refer to the appropriate Manual for Consultation and Notification requirements on each application type.